After having adjourned for a day out of deference to Buffalo Bill, the Montpelier city council met last night and conducted the routine business of the administration. In addition to that, the report of the recent visit to Massachusetts cities to learn about the best methods of road building was presented by Alderman Emmons.

They have just finished installing a new steel operating cage at the Bijou theatre. This is a still further preventative of fire that the management of this popular theatre has put in for its patrons' benefit. All new and good pictures there today. Four of them—funny ones, serious ones, and all round good ones. Have you seen the new sign lighted yet?

"A Trip Through Norway and Sweden," to be shown at the opera house tonight, is equal to a trip to that far-off country, as it shows the rugged and beautiful scenery; one of the best views is taken at the north cape, showing the midnight sun, which for a short time during the summer furnishes light continuously day and night. "A Must Forgive" is a fine dramatic film, while "The Tricky Twins" furnish a great laugh. Another great spontaneous picture is "A Stag Hunt in England."

A surprise party was given Wednesday to little Edah Perry at her home on the Plainfield road in honor of her tenth birthday. There were about 25 of her little friends present. The afternoon was enjoyably spent in games and listening to selections from the phonograph. Miss Edah received many beautiful and useful presents, among which was a sum of money. The presents were given to her by her sister, Miss Marion, for which she responded. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lyle Perry and Mrs. Theron Perry, there being lemonade, cake, sandwiches, wafers and ice cream. The party broke up at about 6:30 o'clock, after spending a most delightful afternoon, and wishing their young hostess many happy returns of the day.

Quality Before Low-ness of Price!

Beware of low-priced market supplies with no guarantee of quality behind them. While lowness of price is very desirable, good quality is much more so.

You'll find our market goods up in quality and moderately priced. You get a "square deal" here—that is, we make a fair profit and you get quality goods. If, by chance, anything is wrong that we sell you, we stand ready to cheerfully make it good.

Here's some things you need for the week-end:

Native Chickens (broilers) coming in fine. Couple of them make a pretty fair Sunday dinner for fastidious folks. Get them early.

New This Week—Pie Apples and Sweet Corn. A partial list follows of our good things. Just check off with a pencil what you want to order. Clip out the ad.

New Potatoes, Yellow Turnips, Native Carrots, Native Beets, Peas and String Beans, Cucumbers, Watermelons, Pineapples, Currants, Bananas.

You are at liberty to place your orders over the phone (9-3). We'll carefully fill and deliver them.

EAST BARRE.

Last Sunday, July 19th, A. S. Martin of Barre took the following party, Alfred and M. W. Hyland, Jos. Blodau and M. E. Leonard in his auto, to Lowell, Vt., to look at the asbestos property leased by John Osborne, Alfred Hyland and Fred Leonard of East Barre. This property is located at Lowell, 13 miles from Barton Landing and three miles from the Gallagher mine, formerly known as the Tucker property, also in Lowell, which is now being worked extensively. It is about 80 miles from the famous asbestos mines of Thetford, P. Q., which are considered the best in the world, and appears to be on the same range of mountains. This new property has been worked but very little as yet, but from a report of some of the like sent to H. W. John's Manville company of New York City, shows it to be worth $150 per ton. Mr. Blodau, who has worked in the Thetford mines and had other valuable experience, pronounced the surface floor of this to be as good, if not better than the surface floor of the Thetford mines. The fire is longer and more of it than found on the surface at Thetford, P. Q. This valuable property will be worked by the parties leasing it as soon as arrangements can be made.

Dr. Minard went to Waterbury on Monday, expecting to go to Burlington this week in consultation regarding his eyes.

Henry Canning, formerly of this place but now of Barre, has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to sit up and walk a very little.

The ladies of the village will hold an ice cream sale Saturday evening. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the band.
